Design is the creation of a plan or convention for the construction of an object, system or measurable human interaction. Design has different connotations in different fields (see design disciplines below). In some cases, the direct construction of an object (as in pottery, engineering, management, coding, and graphic design) is also considered to use design thinking.

- [Voiceover] Hi, I'm Gary Yeoman, and welcome to Designing a SharePoint Taxonomy. In this course, we'll look at how to decide between SharePoint components to build a long-lasting, maintainable document and data management system. I'll start by explaining how your documents can be organized, and some of the primary concerns when deciding how to arrange them.

Very interesting view of "interaction". I've focused on biological interactions, and followed the works of Edward F. Haskell, who generalized the arrow diagrams in Einstein and Infeld (EofP), page 17, to produce an interaction based mathematical coordinate system (see cover of Main Currents in Modern Thought 7(2), 1949).

What is Interaction? Are There Different Types?

I'm about to have Thanksgiving at home with my daughter for the first time since her mom and I split ten years ago. Ours is a gender reversal of a typical divorce situation: usually it's the mom who does the everyday caregiving, and the dad who gets holiday time with the kid(s).
