Spiritual warfare is the struggle to have life in this material world reflect as much as possible God's loving governance. It is a war because there are forces working vigorously to thwart man from reaching God. God is in charge, but there is an enemy that is in full-scale revolt, and it has powerful influence all around us. Spiritual warfare exists in the unseen, supernatural dimension ...

Most Christians understand the soul as an ontological reality distinct from, yet integrally connected with, the body. Its characteristics are described in moral, spiritual, and philosophical terms. Richard Swinburne, a Christian philosopher of religion at Oxford University, wrote that "it is a frequent criticism of substance dualism that dualists cannot say what souls are.
